Dear Mr. Casey:

The Eighth Annual National Convention of the Association of Former Intelligence Officers (AFIO) will be held on 1 and 2 October 1982 at the Springfield Hilton Hotel, Springfield, Virginia. In the absence of our President, Jack Maury, I am extending on behalf of AFIO an invitation for you and Mrs. Casey to be our guests for cocktails and dinner at the Convention banquet on Saturday, 2 October. Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m., and the banquet will begin at 8:00 p.m.

Retired Admiral Bobby Inman has tentatively agreed to be our banquet speaker.

I am enclosing a copy of the Convention announcement which contains the broad schedule of planned events, including a listing of our panelists and guest speakers confirmed to date. We expect to have an interesting program and very much hope that you both can join us at the Saturday banquet and at any of the other public sessions which may interest you. For planning purposes, we would appreciate receiving an early response.

We include the note that our Convention is being held in accordance with Department of Defense standards of conduct and that our program has been approved by the Office of Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs).

Sincerely,

Robert D. Brown, Jr.
 Robert D. Brown, Jr.
 National Convention Chairman
